Sound Value

2007 AASHTO Value Engineering Conference
Seattle, Washington
July 17 - 20, 2007

The AASHTO Value Engineering Technical Committee cordially invites you to the
2007 AASHTO Value Engineering Conference

The 2007 AASHTO Value Engineering Conference offers a one-stop source for transportation value engineering education, information, inspiration, and networking. Value engineering practitioners will present their latest practices and discoveries during three session tracks: Case Studies, Advanced Tools and Techniques, and Starting and Maintaining a Value Engineering Program. This is a unique opportunity to learn more about value engineering, hone your value engineering skills, and network with other value engineering professionals.

The conference will be held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in downtown Seattle, on the shores of Washington State's beautiful Puget Sound. Guest room capacity is limited, so be sure to register early and secure your hotel room as soon as possible. For more information, go to Conference Information at:
